

For over 18 years, Hijara has been instrumental in introducing New England audiences to the masculine side of the art of Middle Eastern dance.

As part of Desert Moon Dancers since its start, he specializes in the tahtib (traditional Egyptian stick dancing). He also teaches beginner ME dance classes at Manchester (CT) Community College.