

Farasha & Su'ad Dance & Designs present:

Sahra Saeeda - "Folk Dance to the Oriental Stage"

17th Connecticut Master Seminar & Showcase
Connecticut College
Crozier Williams Student Center (Student Union)
270 Mohegan Avenue
New London, CT

REVISED DATE: Sat., June 6, 2015

We are especially pleased to announce that we are bringing internationally-respected dancer, teacher, and dance ethnologist Sahra Saeeda to Connecticut June 6, 2015.

As a teacher, Sahra has taught (and performed) Egyptian style Orientale and Folkloric dance on five continents. She is also creator of the "Journey Through Egypt" workshop series.

To make it easier for dancers to attend and get the full benefit of this extraordinary event, we are revising this to be a ONE DAY event!

Join us for a day of dance where Sahra will teach a beledy-saidi based choreography, with a lunchtime lecture session! Saturday night will feature a show with Sahra and local performers.

SCHEDULE:

9:30 - 11:00

Registration & Shopping

11:00 - 1:00

Saidi style choreography (not cane)

1:00 - 2:30

Lunch & Lecture: "From Folk Dance to the Oriental Stage"

2:30 - 4:30

Saidi choreography, continued

4:30 - 6:30

Break

6:30 - 7:00

Doors open for the show

7:00 - 8:30

Show featuring Sahra Saeeda!

SIMPLIFIED PRICING:

$105 for class, lecture, lunch, and the show!

* A bagged lunch will be provided - sandwich, salad, chips, fruit, cookie, and a drink.
Registrations preferred by May 31st, but walk-ins accepted.

$20 for extra show tickets for friends and family.

Class details available in the one-page flyer. Be sure to indicate your sandwich choice!

Directions to Conn College

Questions? Contact Su'ad at nancysuad@gmail.com