AfroBeat Belly Dance is a blend of music and dance styles drawing inspiration from across the African Diaspora and continent. Egyptian, Moroccan, and Congolese all meet Latin America and the Caribbean to create expressive dances full of passion and soul.

In this workshop, you will learn a choreography that combines elements of Egyptian, Congolese, and Caribbean movements to create a hot and spicy gumbo full of excitement and the celebration of life. It's guaranteed to get everyone up and out of their seats!

Tarik Sultan is one of the few professional male Oriental Dancers in the world. Tarik began his formal training in Oriental Dance in 1985. Over the years his talent and dedication to the art has earned him a reputation as a dynamic performer, and inspiring teacher and choreographer. He has taught many successful seminars across the nation as well as The UK, Japan, Australia, Trinidad, and Argentina.
