Desert Moon Dancers return to Pennsic this year as part of our 20th anniversary tour! DMD 20 at Pennsic 40!

Sunday, August, 7, 2011

6:00 - 8:00 PM

Coopers Lake Campground

Performing Arts Tent

At the corner of Chandler's Road and Kurdson Way

Join us for this special show with our friends:

- Farasha
- Erzulie
- Serene
- Bad Raqsan'e Sahra

Featuring music by Carmine and the "Pennisic All Star Band!"

Pennsic is a semi-private event for the Society for Creative Anachronism, a world-wide, historical recreation club. All attendees must pay the entrance fee for the entire main week of Pennsic, but then all performances are free.

If you've never been to one of our Pennsic performances before, you're in for a treat. We use costuming and music that are as period as we can make them. And we invite friends of ours (dancers and dance troupes) to join us for a few dances. You get a variety of music, dance, and costume styles, but all with a period flavor. No modern costumes; no modern music.

Come see Middle Eastern dance as it may have been centuries ago!
